Signed Bar Roll: 2017

Matthew practices nationally in commercial, regulatory and public law matters, including in civil penalty proceedings and statutory investigations.

Matthew is an accomplished litigator and trial advocate, with nearly 20 years' experience of complex strategic litigation. He works closely with his instructors, and is regularly briefed unled, with Senior Counsel, or as leader to more junior counsel.

Matthew is the lead author of Civil Penalties in Australia (2025, LexisNexis). He is ranked as a leading barrister in Commercial Disputes (2026, Legal 500) and in White Collar Criminal Law and Regulatory Investigations (2025, Doyle's Guide).

Matthew's areas of expertise are:

- Complex corporate and commercial litigation: including corporate governance and shareholder disputes, commercial trusts, managed investment schemes, partnerships, corporate insolvency, schemes of arrangement, and complex fraud and wrongdoing. Matthew is a former member of the Law Council of Australia's Corporations Law Committee.
- Regulatory and public law (especially civil penalty proceedings): including proceedings for contraventions of corporate, commercial, energy, consumer and other legislation. Matthew has appeared for commonwealth and state regulators and defendants in over 15 civil penalty proceedings – many high profile, complex or novel – and regularly conducts compulsory examinations. Matthew also appears in administrative law and disciplinary proceedings.
- Energy and infrastructure law: including matters raising complex regulatory, engineering, logistical, economic, and consumer law issues. Matthew is the Deputy Chair of the Commercial Bar Association's Energy & Infrastructure Section, and the co-author of the National Energy Regulation Handbook (2017, Energy Consumers Australia).
- Financial services law and regulation: including financial products, financial services, financial markets and financial advice, superannuation, personal insurance, managed investment schemes, and associated fraud and misconduct.
- Competition and consumer law: including competition law, economic regulation, and breaches of consumer legislation.
